The Alexa
Hacker
Manual

HACKER MASTER

Become a Hacker Master by helping Alexa break into the world's hardest security systems!

Use this manual to figure out the correct passphrase to tell Alexa to disable the security component based on what she reads to you.

How To Hack

Alexa will break into the backend server and tell you the secure passphrase. The passphrase will always be of the form:

“The [Secure_Adjective]
[Secure_Noun] is in [Secure_Place]”.

How To Hack

Based on what Alexa says,
you will respond with a secret passphrase of the form:

“The [Secret_Adjective]
[Secret_Noun]
[Secret_Action]”

How To Hack

Your job is to take the secure passphrase Alexa tells you, and figure what the correct secret passphrase is!

The charts below will help you hack by telling you how to use the [Secure_Adjective], [Secure_Noun], and [Secure_Place].

How To Hack

Chart A has your [Secure_Adjective] on a column, and [Secure_Noun] in a row. The intersecting cell in the chart will be your [Secret_Noun].

Ex: If Alexa says “The blue eagle is in orbit”, your [Secret_Noun] is “interviewer”

How To Hack

Chart B has [Secure_Place] on the left column, and [Secret_Adjective] on the right. Use your [Secure_Place] to find the associated [Secret_Adjective]

Ex: If Alexa says “The blue eagle is in orbit”, your [Secret_Adjective] is “obsolete”

How To Hack

Chart C has four [Secret_Action], and you choose it based on what [Secure_Adjective] and [Secure_Noun] Alexa says.

The [Secure_Adjective] is either a color or not a color.

The [Secure_Noun] is either a human or not a human.

How To Hack

If [Secure_Adjective] is a color, and [Secure_Noun] is a human, then

[Secret_Action] is “is waiting”

If [Secure_Adjective] is a color, and [Secure_Noun] is NOT a human, then

[Secret_Action] is “has landed”

How To Hack

If [Secure_Adjective] is
NOT a color, and [Secure_Noun] is a human,
then [Secret_Action] is “is in danger”

If [Secure_Adjective] is
NOT a color, and [Secure_Noun] is NOT a human, then [Secret_Action]
is “walks alone”

How To Hack

Ex: If Alexa says “The blue eagle is in orbit”, then your [Secret_Action] is “has landed” because blue is a color and eagle is not a human.

How To Hack

Once you have your [Secret_Adjective], [Secret_Noun], and [Secret_Action], tell Alexa the passphrase by saying “The [Secret_Adjective] [Secret_Noun] [Secret_Action]”

How To Hack

Examples:

Alexa: "The blue eagle is in orbit"

Hacker: "The obsolete
interviewing has landed"

Alexa: "The arrogant doctor is in the tunnel"

Hacker: "The terrible
cactus is in danger"

How To Hack

Alexa: "The black mother is on the moon"

Hacker: "The cold milkshake is waiting"

Alexa: "The shy puppy is in Kansas"

Hacker: "The well-made comedian walks alone"

How To Hack

If you give Alexa three incorrect responses, your VPN will go down and the police will find you!

Be careful, and good luck!
